

Did you know... About your Animache Farm animals ?

The many uses of mud...

It's a pig's world! Pigs will use water and mud to cool themselves in the summer and as they can't apply sunscreen from the shop, they simply use mud to avoid being sunburned!

It's wooly and a natural leader... what is it called?

A sheep that leads others is known as a bellwether and a group of sheep is called either a flock or a mob. The first mammal to be cloned was Dolly the Sheep! A bright eyed, bushy tailed creature indeed...

ADOPTION CERTIFICATE

Do not forget to register your animal with the petit artisan Club so that it can be part of the Animache family.
